

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

I have battled repeated, unwanted, and unsolicited calls to my cell phone from MCI-WorldCom on a daily basis for a year. The threat of action from the Attorney Generals Office of the State of Indiana is the only way I get some relief.

If your office reduces the ability of our state to protect the privacy of our citizens, it would be a sad day.